Bryan, who presided, on Wednesday afternoon, proved extremely interesting.

Plans were made for the observance, in a suitable manner, of Confederate Memorial day on June 3. At that time markers will she placed at three more graves in the memorial lot in Elimwood Semetery. The orator for the day will be chosen by the members of the historical society. The Rev. William H. Coleman, pastor of St. John's M. Echurch, has been asked to give the invocation and the Rev. Father A. B. Parker, of St. Patrick's church, to pronounce the behediction. Musical numbers will, as usual, he a feature of the program for the day.

The members of the association are anxious to have a great many flowers to decorate the graves of the soldier dead and all their friends have been asked to keep the date in mind and contribute flowers and patted plants.

The president and members of the association have extended a cordial invitation to all U. D. C. chapters to become members of the association, which is the delest organization of its kind and its influence for good is felt in many directions. The memorial lot in Elmwood cemetery is the association, which is the delest organization of its kind and its influence for good is felt in many directions. The memorial invitation work for the care of veterans and their families. Presidents of U. D. C. Chapters have been urged to bring the matter to the attention of their members and urge them to affiliate with the Memorial association.

One new member, Mrs. Lee Hill, was given a cordial welcome at the meeting.
